By signing below, the candidate confirms having read and understood the relevant training program, in particular section 4.5.1, "Timing of the Examination: It is recommended to take the specialist examination no earlier than the final year of the regulatory training." For candidates who register earlier and consequently have insufficient experience in allergology and clinical immunology, the responsible examination board reserves the right to evaluate them as insufficient based on their lack of knowledge, referencing this section. Admission to the specialist examination is based on the current training program and must be confirmed by the responsible examination board.
